Good for Babies.

We are pleased to say that our baby was permanently cured of a serious protracted irregularity of the bowels by the use of Hop Bitters by its mother, which at the same time restored her to perfect health and strength.—The Parents, University ave., Rochester, N. Y. See another column.

45 Years Before the Public.

THE GENUINE

DR. C. McLANE'S

CELEBRATED

LIVER PILLS,

FOR THE CURE OF

Hepatitis, or Liver Complaint,

DYSPEPSIA AND SICK HEADACHE.

Symptoms of a Diseased Liver.

PAIN in the right side, under the edge of the ribs, increases on pressure; sometimes the pain is in the left side; the patient is rarely able to lie on the left side; sometimes the pain is felt under the shoulder blade, and it frequently extends to the top of the shoulder, and is sometimes mistaken for rheumatism in the arm. The stomach is affected with loss of appetite and sickness; the bowels in general are costive, sometimes alternative with lax; the head is troubled with pain, accompanied with a dull, heavy sensation in the back part. There is generally a considerable loss of memory, accompanied with a painful sensation of having left undone something which ought to have been done. A slight, dry cough is sometimes an attendant. The patient complains of weariness and debility; he is easily startled, his feet are cold or burning, and he complains of a prickly sensation of the skin; his spirits are low; and although he is satisfied that exercise would be beneficial to him, yet he can scarcely summon up fortitude enough to try it. In fact, he distrusts every remedy. Several of the above symptoms attend the disease, but cases have occurred where few of them existed, yet examination of the body, after death, has shown the LIVER to have been extensively diseased.

AGUE AND FEVER.

DR. C. McLANE'S LIVER PILLS, IN CASES OF AGUE AND FEVER, when taken with Quinine, are productive of the most happy results. No better cathartic can be used, preparatory to, or after taking Quinine. We would advise all who are afflicted with this disease to give them a FAIR TRIAL.

For all bilious derangements, and as a simple purgative, they are unequalled.

Beware of Imitations.

The genuine are never sugar coated. Every box has a red wax seal on the lid, with the impression of DR. C. McLANE'S LIVER PILLS.

The genuine DR. C. McLANE'S LIVER PILLS bear the signatures of C. McLANE and FLEMING on the wrapper.

Look upon having the genuine DR. C. McLANE'S LIVER PILLS, prepared by Fleming & Co., of Pittsburgh, Pa., the market being full of imitations of the name McLANE, spelled in various and wrong pronunciations.

TUTT'S PILLS!

A NOTED DIVINE SAYS THEY ARE WORTH THEIR WEIGHT IN GOLD READ WHAT HE SAYS:

Dr. T.—Dear Sir: For ten years I have been a martyr to dyspepsia, constipation and pain. Last spring your Pills were recommended to me; I used them, but with little result. I am now a well man, have good appetite, digestion perfect, regular stools, pain gone, and I am gained forty pounds solid flesh. They are worth their weight in gold. Res. H. L. SIMMONS, Louisville, Ky.

A TORPID LIVER

is the fruitful source of many diseases, such as dyspepsia, Sick Headache, Constipation, Dropsy, Bilious Fever, Ague and Fever, Jaundice, Piles, Rheumatism, Kidney Complaint, Colic, etc. Tutt's Pills exert a powerful influence on the Liver and will with certainty relieve that important organ from disease, and restore its normal functions.

The rapidity with which persons taken on flesh, while under the influence of these pills, of itself indicates their adaptability to nourish the body, hence their efficacy in curing nervous debility, dyspepsia, wasting of the muscles, sluggishness of the liver, chronic constipation, and imparting health and strength to the system.

CONSTIPATION.

Only with regularity of the bowels can perfect health be enjoyed. When the constipation is of recent date, a single dose of TUTT'S PILLS will suffice, but if it has become habitual, one pill should be taken every night, gradually increasing the frequency of the dose until a regular daily movement is obtained, which will soon follow. Sold Everywhere, 25 CENTS. OFFICE, 35 MURRAY ST., NEW YORK.

DECATUR LOCALS.

From Our Own Correspondent.

On Saturday morning last at about ten o'clock an alarm of fire was given, and Wm. H. Tucker's residence on school street was discovered to be where the fire was located. An immense crowd turned out and fought the destroyer with great energy, as men are in the habit of doing at Decatur in such cases, but a cold wind was blowing at the time which had full sweep for some miles from the north-west, and it was impossible to check the flames fully. The residence was a fine one and added much to the pleasant appearance of School street. Mr. T. and his family have the sympathy of the entire community. Most of the furniture, including a fine piano, was saved, although somewhat injured. The house was insured, we understand, for $1,000.

Mrs. Abigail S. L. Riddle, widow of Thompson Riddle, sr., and mother of Thompson Riddle, jr., of this place, died at her residence in Decatur on Monday, the 17th inst., at about eleven o'clock in the forenoon. Mrs. Riddle left many warm personal friends, who have long been closely attached to her on account of her many excellent traits of character and to whom her demise occasions an irreparable loss.

The foreclosure case of Geo. Gordon vs. David Squier, as administrator of the estate of Isaac B. Higgins, deceased, has been settled amicably.

A valuable mare belonging to S. M. Rawson, Esq., was so badly injured by breaking through a stable floor recently, that she was shot to put her out of her misery. This mare constituted one of a team with which Mr. Rawson and Chas. W. Barrett were intending soon to make a trip to the region of the "Red River of the North," where they intend to locate homesteads. It is a severe loss to Mr. R. and he has our sympathy.

Theodore Williams was in town one day last week from Hamilton, among other errands to sell the hide of a valuable chestnut breeding mare belonging to his father, A. H. Williams, and which had recently died. This was one of a lot of horses imported into this county from Indiana a year or two ago by Messrs. Hendryx & Brownbridge.

Messrs. Bull & Achley have their immense mill-yard, south of the village, filled with logs of the best quality, many of them being black-walnut, whitewood, ash, etc., and the ring of their saw is to be heard at all hours of the day and night except Sundays. We congratulate them on this result of a good winter. There are no two other men among our citizens who are more deserving of good fortune than they.

MATTAWAN LOCALS.

From Our Own Correspondent.

Died—in Mattawan, Saturday afternoon, Mrs. Betsy Miller, aged 64 years. The funeral services were held at the Congregational church on Monday.

J. G. Fuller reports himself at Pueblo, Col. en route for Leadville, and invites inquiring friends who contemplate digging gold as a means for filling an exhausted exchequer, to stay at home.

Henry Hooper, through the entreaties of numerous friends, has consented to entertain the people of Mattawan and vicinity with a sugar party at the Phoenix, on Thursday evening March 27th. C. L. Rix, manager; music by Crockett's Band. These entertainments are conducted with the strictest propriety. As Mr. Hooper has raised the standard of these gatherings, he should be encouraged by a liberal patronage. Turn out and help.

Roll of honor of pupils of Mattawan School, as regards deportment. Standing, 9 1/2 and over: scale, 10: Frank Elmendorf, Will Burdick, Willie Conklin, Willie Fox, Roger Carlisle, Geo. Boynton, Myron Bishop, Roswell Brooks, Bessie Bishop, Eva Robbins, Della Castor, Ruby Bishop, Myra Robbins, Clara Briggs, Luella Williams. The following is a list of those whose average standing in classes is 9 1/2 and over: Maggie Reynolds, Della Carter, Ella Darling, Etta Darling, Clara Briggs, Luella Williams, Myra Robbins, Ezra Tillou. This list would have been much more extended had it not been for necessary absences, and absence counting zero. The school has been well conducted and the students have made great strides in their studies. So much for a good teacher.

The old members of the Brass Band met Monday evening to reorganize.

KENDALL LOCALS.

From Our Own Correspondent.

A donation party at Elder Sprague's, on Tuesday evening, left his Reverence a richer man by thirty-five dollars.

On Wednesday evening John Cavanaugh, a deaf mute, gave a highly novel and interesting lecture at the church.

The saloon near the depot, which has been deserted for a number of years, has been taken possession of by a "Vandalite" from Battle Creek, who, we suppose, rides the usual worn out hobbles, and sports the egregious nonsense peculiar to the sect. We are a little particular about our reputation and do not venture in.

The Amateurs, in the production of Lady Audley's Secret, have again covered themselves with glory, and on the nights of March 28 and 29, will present the intensely exciting drama, "One Hundred Years Ago," and the humorous farce, "Wanted a Correspondent."

Philadelphia has just closed up a boys' bar-room, where an eight-year old totted the counter, and over 100 young "kids" daily called for their bitters.

GOBLEVILLE LOCALS.

From Our Own Correspondent.

Mrs. Beddo has purchased the building formerly owned and occupied by L. D. Herman as store at Pine Grove, and intends to move it up to this place in a few days.

The Post Bros. are pushing forward the work of getting their flouring mill in running order.

Mr. Cavanaugh, a mute, gave an entertainment, consisting of a temperance lecture, closing with a series of gesticulations, last Friday evening. The audience was small, owing no doubt to a dance in town the same night.

Sunday morning preaching was omitted last Sunday, owing to the absence of the preacher attending a quarterly meeting elsewhere.

ALMENA LOCALS.

From Our Own Correspondent.

Permit us to go out of town for one item this week, just over in our sister town of Antwerp. On Tuesday evening, the 17th inst., the little folks of Antwerp and Almena assembled at the residence of Henry Waste to attend his daughter Nora's birthday party, she being 12 years old on that day. The children amused themselves one way and another until supper was announced, when they gathered around a table loaded with substantial and dainty food. Nora received a large number of presents, some of them very nice.

Frank Cure started for Nebraska last Thursday, his object being to look at some land that he intends trading for.

Pudding and milk social at the Hall Friday evening. Wonder if each one carries his own dish and spoon.

WAVERLY LOCALS.

From Our Own Correspondent.

The lumbermen have all returned from the north. They report a heavy crop of logs being banked.

Wheat is looking well at present. If the weather proves favorable from this time on, there will be an abundant harvest.

Mrs. Valenau, mother of T. W. died March 9. She was very old and nearly helpless, and was one of the old settlers. Old age and debility was the cause of her death.

There were no services at Covey Hill church Sunday last on account of quarterly meeting at Gliddenburg.

We have some smart youths at Glendale. Saturday last four of them, between the ages of ten and fifteen, started for Chicago to make their fortunes. It is needless to say they had the usual number of revolvers with them.

On Friday last the Sheriff came down and removed a couple of Bloomingdale youths to safer quarters. It appears they undertook to break up a lecture at the Baughman school-house. Failing in this, they waylaid the President and manled him severely. They were under arrest when the Sheriff came. Some two weeks ago there was a party at Isaac Spaulding's. Several fast young men were there who had a terrible hankering for cider; this was denied them. After the party had broken up and the people had retired, a noise was heard in close proximity to the cellar. On investigation it was found that these fast young men were trying to break into the cellar. They had already broken in the bulk-head door, and were at work on the next. We learn that one has settled with Mr. Spaulding and the rest are at large.

It is a little singular, but this town has never before had such an array of thieves, liars, murderers, swindlers, black-legs and criminals generally as it has since the Nixon arrest, and what is more singular, all of them are hard-money men, or, according to the greenbackers, bloated bond-holders. If some good, smart detective would come here, he could probably unearth the Nathan murderers and the Charley Ross abductors! Its worth trying anyhow, and we throw this out as a suggestion.

How is the following for a play on words. The writer must own a very "big" dictionary.

ATLANTIS LOCALS.

From Our Own Correspondent.

Mrs. Enton: One of your adolescent correspondents who acts as the figurehead of your Gobleville Locals, seems to exult in a most transcendental abhorrence of abominable neopagan verbiage. Whether his semblance of erudition is assumed to conceal his illiteracy, or on the hypothesis, an individual concomitant to persistent scholarship I cannot affirm. But in either case his constipation of ambigulous expletives is so anomalous as to be totally incompatible with either legitimate ratiocination or purloined intelligence. But lest I might defatigate your patience by what might eventually in abortive tentamina at amending his orthography and style, and thus seem (though rather far from my intention) to exonerate his exuberant redundancy. This peripatetic biped would make your Atlantis correspondent a follower of "biopirates" with very little regard for veracity. Now, Mr. Editor, I commend you by your zeal for literature, and commendation for your readers, and correspondents, in the future to exert your abhorrently mandatory, and corrigitive prerogative, and thus interdict him from any future ejaculations of his involuntary orthographic animadversions that might have a tendency in the ultimate to create in your "intelligent readers" a potent dysorexy for Atlantis locals, and also to depreciate the merit of your correspondent to his lachrymal dependency. Yours very truly,

K. N. PAPPEN, JR.

Oh, my, let us take breath!

"Spinners' balls" are given in Paris at which no lady is eligible unless she is on the shady side of 25.

Correspondence of The True Northerner.

I know The works that Thou hast a name, that Thou invest, and art dead.—Rev. 3, 1.

I would ask some Christian who does not belong to the above described class, to state through these columns, if permitted, what authority they have for raising means to support the Gospel through the present popular agency known as "church socials," and where they get this authority. The object of this request is not simply discussion but a desire for the predominance of truth over error. Hope they will not be in the dilemma of those anciently, who could not answer a similar question because it would either establish their guilt or place them in fear of the people. S. K.

THE GIRL WHO WINS.

The time has passed when woman must be pale and delicate, to be interesting; when she must be totally ignorant of all practical knowledge to be called refined and high-bred; when she must know nothing of the current political news of the day, or be called masculine and strong-minded. It is not a sign of high birth, of refinement, to be staid and ignorant. Those who affect anything of the kind are behind the times, and must shake and air themselves mentally and physically, or droop under the firm strides of common sense ideas, and be crushed into utter insignificance.

In these days, an active, rosy-faced girl, with brains quick and clear, warm, light heart, a temper quickly heated at intended insults or injury, and just as quick to forgive; whose feet run as fast as her tongue, and not put her out of breath; who is not afraid of freckles, or to breathe the pure air of heaven, unrestrained by the drawn curtains of a close carriage; and above all, who can speak her mind and give her opinion on important topics which interest intelligent people, is the true girl who wins in these days. Even boys like a woman who can talk well, though she is not handsome.

WOMEN INVENTIONS.—The question is often asked us: Do the inventions of women ever amount to anything? From our long experience with inventors of both sexes, we conclude that a larger proportion of inventions patented by women prove useful and profitable than those of the sterner sex. We see by the New York Sun that the Metropolitan Elevated Railway Company has selected a device, from the many that have been under consideration, for lessening the noise of the trains, and that it is the invention of a Mrs. Walton, of this city. The plan consists of boxing the rails in a mixture of sand, tar, and cotton, and has been under test for two months on several blocks of the road in Sixth avenue. The ringing of the wheels on the rails, which makes a large part of the objectionable sound, is considerably diminished. She gets, according to the Sun $10,000 for the use of the invention on the Metropolitan line, and the company is to control its adoption on other roads, paying her a royalty. —Scientific American.

"I tell you what it is," said one of a small coterie of wealthy men who had met in the office of their number, "they may say what they please about the uselessness of modern women, but my wife has done her share in securing our success in life. Everybody knows that her family was aristocratic and exclusive, and all that, and when I married her, she had never done a day's work in her life; but when W. & Co. failed, and I had to commence at the foot of the hill again, she discharged the servant and those out of a neat little cottage, and did her own house keeping until I was better off again." "And my wife," said a second, was an only daughter, caressed and petted to death; and everybody said, "Well, if he will marry a doll like that, he'll make the greatest mistake of his life; but when I came home the first year of our marriage, sick with the fever, she nursed me back to health, and I never knew her to murmur because I thought we couldn't afford any better style or more luxuries." Well, gentlemen," chimed in a third, "I married a smart, healthy, pretty girl, but she was a regular bluestocking. She adored Tennyson, doated on Byron, read Emerson, and named the first baby Ralph Waldo and the second Mand; but I tell you what 'tis," and the speaker's eyes grew suspiciously moist, "when we laid little Maud in her last bed at Auburn, my poor wife had no remembrance of neglect or stinted motherly care, and the little dresses that still lie in the locked drawer were all made by her own hands."

The philanthropists of East Saginaw have banded together to take care of the "boys" who come down from the woods and generally use up all their money in the saloons and worse places. Personal active effort will be made by 24 ladies and gentlemen in behalf of the red-shirted brigades.

Greeley, which took the advice of its namesake, went West and settled in Colorado, is the red ribbon town of the country. It has no police or constables and no liquor shops of any kind.

Spring poetry rarely wastes its sweetness on desert air. It is generally crowded into damp waste paper bags, and sold by the pound. New Orleans Picayune.

Tongues cannot tell the words or express the astonishment of the crippled soldier in Connecticut who awoke to find his wife using his wooden leg to pound the breakfast for breakfast.—[Daneville Sentinel.]

The women lawyers of the United States are Mrs. Lockwood, of Washington; Mrs. Myra Bradwell, editor of the Chicago Legal News; Miss Peabody Conner, of Missouri; Mrs. Foster of Iowa; Miss Goodell, of Wisconsin; Mrs. Folger, of San Francisco.
